

LOVE 'EM OR LOSE 'EM™: REWARDING, MOTIVATING, & RETAINING EMPLOYEES

Program Description

Overview:

You not only need people on your team that have the skills to do the job, you also need people who are motivated to do the job. Committed, energized, motivated people can do great things. In order to motivate and retain your employees, it is imperative to understand WHAT motivates and energizes them. In this session, we'll give you everyday tips that you can use to provide a more motivational working environment.

Objectives:

As a result of this program, you should be able to:

- Understand that retention is a serious and costly issue.
- Describe strategies for managing and motivating different generations of workers.
- Identify no-cost or low-cost ways to motivate and reward employees.
- Understand what it takes to keep employees and why they leave.
- Explain how to inspire people to go the extra mile.

Length: Workshop: 3-4 Hours
